In praise to God for the Life, Memory, and Eternal Life of those who have been gathered into the Church Triumphant.
For All the Saints

1 For all the saints who from their labors rest, who
2 Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
3 O blest communion, fellowship divine!
4 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
5 From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast, through

Thee, by faith before the world confessed, thy Thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
We feebly struggle; they in glory shine; yet Steals on the ear the distant triumph song, and Gates of pearl streams in the countless host,

Name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.
All are one in thee, for all are thine.
Hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.
Sing ing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,

Alleluia! Alleluia!

The broad and sweeping tune with which this hymn is so closely identified was created to be sung during a reverent but dramatic procession at the beginning of an All Saints' Day service, an enacted representation of the enduring "fellowship divine" celebrated by this text.

TEXT: William Walsham How, 1864
MUSIC: Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1906
Hosanna, Loud Hosanna

1. Hosanna, loud hosanna, the little children sang;
Through pillared court and temple the joyful anthem rang.
To Jesus, who had blessed them, close folded to his breast,
The children sang their praises, the simplest and the best.

2. From olive they followed mid an exultant crowd,
The victor palm branch waving, and chanting clear and loud;
For Christ is our Redeemer; the Lord of heaven, our King.
Nor scorned that little children should on his bidding wait.

3. "Hosanna in the highest!" That ancient song we sing,
For Christ is our Redeemer; the Lord of heaven, our King.
O may we ever praise him with heart and life and voice,
In his blissful presence externally rejoice.

The opening two stanzas narrate the first Palm Sunday in the past tense, but the third stanza shifts to the present tense to emphasize what current singers do and believe. The repeated elements in this anonymous German tune suggest the repetitive patterns in a crowd's chant.

Call to Discipleship

\textit{one voice, many voices}

\begin{itemize}
\item We are called by God to be the church of Jesus Christ,
a sign in the world today
of what God intends for all humankind.
\item The great ends of the church are the proclamation of the gospel for the salvation of humankind;
the shelter, nurture and spiritual fellowship
of the children of God;
the maintenance of divine worship;
the preservation of the truth;
the promotion of social righteousness;
and the exhibition of the Kingdom of Heaven to the world.
\end{itemize}

The call of Christ is to willing, dedicated discipleship.
Our discipleship is a manifestation of the new life we enter through baptism.
Discipleship is both a gift and a commitment,
an offering and a responsibility.

Doug,
the grace bestowed on you in baptism is sufficient for your calling because it is God’s grace.
By God’s grace we are saved and enabled to grow in the faith and to commit our lives in ways which serve Christ.
God has called you to particular service.
Show you purpose by answering these questions.

Who is your Lord and Savior?
\textit{Doug:} Jesus Christ is my Lord and Savior.
Will you be Christ’s faithful disciple, obeying his word and showing his love?
\textit{Doug:} I will, with God’s help.
Do you welcome the responsibility of this service
because you are determined to follow the Lord Jesus,
to love neighbors,
and to work for the reconciling of the world?
Whatever you do, in word or deed,
do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus,
giving thanks to God through him.

Blessing
May the God of peace make you holy in every way,
and keep your whole being, spirit, soul, and body,
free from every fault at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Amen.
